

INGE C B WEBER SCHOLARSHIP

OVERVIEW

In July of 2009, Helmut Weber, husband of Inge Weber, established the Trust Agreement; the Inge C B Weber Trust with the Bar Harbor (Maine) Garden Club appointed as “Trustee”.

Inge Weber was a longtime member and former President of the Bar Harbor Garden Club (BHGC). She was endeared to the organization and its promotion of community gardening and healthy, beautiful environments enhanced by gardens.

It is the responsibility of the Bar Harbor Garden Club as “Trustee”, to promote, advertise and recruit applicants for this scholarship of $500 - $1,000 grant. In turn, the Scholarship Chairperson will convene a selection committee from club members to process and select the best applicant.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS AND DEADLINES

Applications will be accepted from any of the following groups:

A. Mount Desert Island High School (MDIHS) seniors planning to enter an accredited college or university with intended major in the allied plant sciences: horticulture, floriculture, forestry, botany, environmental sciences or other related areas

B. MDIHS graduates planning a non-college route of study in plant sciences which may include such training as “Master Gardening Volunteer”, like seminars or courses of study. Candidates need not hold a college degree in pursuit of this pathway.

C. College of the Atlantic (COA) students studying allied plant sciences previously listed above. The candidate must have successfully completed one semester as a full time COA student.

NOTE: In all above groups, Maine residents will be given preference.

Applicants must submit the application and essay by May 1st of any given year. The essay “My Plans for the Inge C B Weber Scholarship”, is to be used to link the use of the funding to meet the needs of the student for continuation of their studies.

The application information and essay are to be delivered to the Scholarship Chairman for the Bar Harbor Garden Club at the address below. Judging will be by committee of BHGC membership and convened by the Chairman.

The winning candidate (s) will be notified by June 1st by the Chairman.
